

Vergers' Guild of the Episcopal Church Diocese of Tennessee Chapter

WHEREAS, vergers are the backbone of worship in our Christian community here in the Diocese of Tennessee, and

WHEREAS, we are equipped as a group to grow our ministry through events such as the Annual Blessing of Liturgical Ministries, and

WHEREAS, we have sufficient number where mutual support provides personal growth, and

WHEREAS, it's about time we have a chapter in the state where the guild was founded!

NOW, THEREFORE, through "concealed harmony of contrasting beauties," we, the vergers of the Diocese of Tennessee, serving in our various and sundry capacities, do hereby proclaim the founding of the Diocese of Tennessee Chapter of the Vergers' Guild of the Episcopal Church.

Signed this 5th day of October, 2013.

The vergers of Tennessee as identified by William Hooper Gleason, Tennessee Diocesan Verger and First President of the Vergers' Guild of the Episcopal Church.

Presented to and adopted by the VGEC at the Annual Meeting 10/05/2013
