

Scholarships available for the 2012 VGEC Conference

The Guild will provide up to fifteen scholarships to cover $150 towards the registration expense for attendees to the upcoming conference in Lakeland, Florida at All Saints Episcopal Church.

The Mark Emory Graham Fund of the VGEC will make these grants. They are intended to develop the ministry of verger and will be considered for junior vergers, new vergers or first time attendees with a financial need. The grant will cover 75% of the conference registration fee but not transportation to the Conference or lodging. Please explain below on what basis you are making the request.

Complete the application below:

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Parish: _____ Address: _____

Your parish responsibilities: _____

Home address: _____ email: _____

Your current job or school: _____

Please explain why you would like to attend the 2012 VGEC Conference:

How will you continue to serve your church as a result of this experience?

A reference that we may contact should we need additional information: _____

Please submit your request in order to be considered when the grants committee meets.

Mail to:

Margaret McLarty, VGEC President , 2728 Quail Run Place, Jackson, MS 39211 email: margaret@vergers.org

Fax: 601.898.8584

Please contact Margaret McLarty if you have questions or need additional information.