

Acolyte Master Job Description (draft)

- Nurture and grow a youth ministry open to youths grade 5 and up. Age in years is not as important as maturity. Youths of all ages can be considered on an individual case by case basis by the rector.
- Plan fun events as well as training events for the acolyte corps
- Keep robes and gloves clean and neat. Order new items as needed.
- Become familiar with both major Sunday services from an acolyte perspective so you can serve as a resource for the acolytes. Obtain and read an acolyte manual.
- Communicate with the parents of the acolyte youths. Have their contact information.
- Attend worship committee meetings. Work with the Altar Guild and the Verger Guild to help the Sunday services run smoothly and reverently.
- Help with scheduling of acolytes as requested by the rector and/or Susan Hazelwood. Counsel acolytes and parents if they are consistently not showing up and/or are late on Sunday mornings.
